

Emotional Wellness COVID-19

In the midst of uncertainty, we invite you to utilize this tool to consider and pray through the various ways this crisis is impacting you. Follow the prompts below to identify and process your thoughts and feelings. You will notice that some of the prompts ask you to think through where you might access additional support at this time. We know reaching out can be vulnerable and difficult for various of reasons. Our hope is that this tool may help in times when you feel overwhelmed. Please reach out – you are needed and loved. You are not alone.
